Bhattacharya Committee set up by the Minisry in May 1992;

(b) whether these recommendations had been accepted in the recommended form or in altered form;

(c) what are the details of the accepted recommendations in altered form;

(d) whether these have been adhered to scrupulously since the date of acceptance; and

(e) if not, the deviation details and nature thereof?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELPMENT (DEPTT OF EDUCATION AND DEPTT OF CULTURE) (KM. SELJA): (a) and (b) Dr. Malini Bhattacharya Committee has suggested certain guidelines for regulating admissions under special dispension in Kendriya Vidyalayas and made recommendations regarding the distribution of such admissions among the Members of Parliament Members of the Sangathan in its Board of Governors and other. The Committee also recommended that such admissions be limited to 10 per cent of total admissions of the preceding year. These recommendation were approved by the Chairman, Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan.

(c) Does not arise.

(d) and (e) Admissions by special dispensation in Kendriya Vidyalayas are being made broadly according to the policy adopted in this regard since 1992.

Navyug Schools

8411. SHRI GHUFRAN AZAM: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the details of the Navyug Schools run by NDMC functioning in the capital;

(b) whether NDMC have set up new Navyug Schools in the Capital during the past few years;

(c) if so, the details thereof and

(d) the criteria laid down for admission in Navyug Schools?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELPMENT (DEPTT OF EDUCATION AND DEPTT OF CULTURE) (KM. SELJA): (a) According to the information furnished by New Delhi Municipal Council, the Navyug School Educational Society is running six Navyug Schools of which two are Senior Secondary; one Secondary; two Middle and one Primary school.

(b) and (c) During 1994-95 one Primary school has been set up at Patudi House.

(d) (i) In Navyug Schools requests for admision are accepted only from residents of NDMC and some adjoining areas.

(ii) For admission in such schools 70 per cent seats are reserved for weaker sections i.e. students whose Parents' annual income does not exceed Rs. 30,000.

(iii) The remaining 30 per cent of the seats are for those not coming in category (ii) above.

(iv) 10 per cent of seats both in (ii) & (iii) above are reserved for Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes students.

Accredited Institutions in Rajasthan

8412. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state

(a) the number of students enrolled under National Open Schools (NOS) during 1994-95 for Secndary and Senior Secondary courses in Rajasthan in particular and in the counry as a whole statewise;

(b) which are the accredited institutions in Rajasthan for academic courses and vocational courses;